I am setting check box column click event in the code behind of the client web. But the click event is not getting fired. My event is as below. var element = (HtmlInputCheckBox)ApplicationContext.Current.FindControl("app_NewName"); element.Attributes["onclick"] = "return CheckRecord(this);" private void CheckRecord(object sender, EventArgs e) { try { //do something. } catch (Exception ex) { _logger.Error("Error in control check when button click event", ex); throw; } } But when I am changing that event in JQuery as below code it is working fine. $(".Checkbox").click(function () { alert("hi");
